This is the situation I explained last night regarding getting a toll free number working prior to the public meeting last night (when the original number was not working 10 mins before the public meeting) and we corrected the bullets with the final, correct toll free number and resent last night. We resent the bullets last night with the original number (that wasn't wo

This is not the 844 public number we established yesterday ..when I call it there is a long hold and then the fellow answering doesn't seem to know what the Animas River thing is all about.

Do we have a problem??

[nice photos, however]
